

With My Family

Scripture Together

Often the people who heard Jesus teach asked him questions. In Luke 10:25–28, Jesus tells the scholar to think about a law he already knows. Jesus reminds the man that knowing the law is not enough. We must act to truly follow God’s rules and grow closer to him.

As a family, read about the Greatest Commandment in Luke 10:25–28. When you have finished, discuss the Scripture. You may use the following questions to prompt discussion:

- What answer does the man in the story give to Jesus?
- Why do you think Jesus answers the man’s question with another question?
- How can you show your love for God through how you act toward your neighbor?

Family Prayer

Pray together:

Dear God, thank you for giving us your commandments. Help us always follow them. Amen.

Faith on the Go

Ask one another: What’s your favorite way to show your love to someone?

ACTIVITY: Love of Neighbor

Show your love for your neighbors. Surprise them with flowers or a kind note.
