

With My Family

Scripture Together

When Jesus was among us on earth, he had a special affection for people who were struggling. He showed us how to be generous and caring to everyone.

As a family, read about how Jesus wants us to treat others in Matthew 25:31–40. When you have finished, discuss the Scripture. Use the following questions to prompt discussion:

- How does Jesus want us to treat people who are hungry, poor, or sick?
- What do you think Jesus meant when he said, “Whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine, you did for me”?
- How might you use your time or talents to care for others?

Faith on the Go

Ask one another: How would you treat Jesus?

ACTIVITY: Gratitude Lists

Make a family gratitude list. You might include people, talents, skills, or things on your list. Pray a prayer of gratitude together.

Family Prayer

Pray together:

Dear God, help us make loving and generous choices. Amen.
