

With My Family

Scripture Together

Marriage and family life can be difficult. Praying together is a good way to stay focused on God’s love and on our love for one another.

As a family, read Tobit 8:7–8, a prayer offered to God by Tobit and his wife, Sarah. When you have finished reading, discuss the Scripture. Consider the following questions to help guide discussion:

- What requests does Tobit make of God?
- Why do you think Tobit refers to God’s mercy?
- What blessings are you grateful for?

Faith on the Go

Ask one another: What important thing have you learned as a part of this family?

ACTIVITY: Write a Prayer

Together, write your own family prayer. In it, you might thank God for blessings, ask for God’s help with something, or express family needs. Pray the prayer each night as a family.

Family Prayer

Pray together:

God, bless our family. We know you are present among us. Help each of us be ministers of love to one another. Amen.
